CATALOGUE

GEORGE MORLAND

One of the most noted and popular of English painters. He was born in London, June 26, 1763, and died there Oct. 29, 1804. He was a noted figure and animal painter, and exhibited at the Royal Academy. His most popular paintings were country scenes with domestic animals, and featuring English home life, which pictures have mostly been engraved by the great masters of the Burin. His popularity was such that even today no artist appeals so much to the connoisseur and lover of true life, as do the productions of this great master.

NOTE.—The two paintings described below are undoubtedly productions by this noted master. They were purchased about fifty years ago from the late Robert Lindsay, of this city, who acquired seven paintings from an old English family who had purchased them direct from the artist. The present owner selects these as the best of the lot.

550

1 QUAIL HUNTING. Signed, "G. M." On Canvas.

Size, 18 x 24 inches.

This painting has been painted with unusual care. It depicts an English gentleman in his traditional gunning coat and broad brimmed felt hat, standing in a little open space in the woods with the gun in his left hand. With him are three English setter dogs about scenting the trail of the birds. See plate.

550

2 ENGLISH FARM SCENE. Canvas.

Size 18 x 24 inches.

The painting portrays a scene in every day English farm life, of a farmer boy in his great coat standing with his sister near a pig trough, at which a black boar and yellow pig are drinking. To the right is a beautifully painted figure of an English setter dog. See plate.

These two paintings should command the serious attention of the lovers of English art in its very best form.

CASPER NETSCHER

Was born at Heidelberg in 1639; died at the Hague Jan. 15, 1684. Dutch School. Game and portrait painter, pupil of Koster and Gerard Terburg. His paintings are much sought after by our great public galleries and private collectors. For correct drawing and exquisite coloring, his pictures cannot be surpassed.

700

3 A BOY HOLDING A BIRD CAGE IN HIS LEFT HAND.

Canvas. Size, 11½ x 15.

This painting originally belonged to Madam Pichnot, widow of Dr. Pichnot of Brussels, who had a collection of fine works of art. Madam Pichnot was by birth an English woman who married the celebrated physician by that name. She was over 93 years of age when this painting was purchased from her for the present owner by the well-known art expert, Henry R. Rittenberg, whose letter to that effect accompanies the painting. See plate.

WINSLOW HOMER

Born in Boston, Mass., Feb. 24, 1836. Elected an A. N. A. in 1864, an N. A. in 1865. Painted with oil and water color, ranking among the most noted of American painters.

4 THE WRECK.

Size,  $21\frac{1}{2}$  x 27 inches.

This is a vivid portrayal of a storm at sea, and the wreck of a vessel, with the sailors clinging to the bow of the boat. In the near distance is a small boat with the hardy life guards to the rescue. See plate.

THOMAS BIRCH

Born in London, 1779. Died in Philadelphia 1851. Portrait and Marine Painter. Noted for his paintings of Naval Battles of the Revolution and War of 1812, and for his views in Philadelphia and vicinity.

5 VIEW AT FLAT ROCK ON THE SCHUYLKILL NEAR PHILADELPHIA.

Signed. Canvas. Size, 18 x 28 inches.

This is absolutely one of the finest specimens of Birch's painting that has ever passed through my hands. It is a view of the historic Schuylkill River, near Philadelphia, which county was associated with George Washington and the Continental Army during the Revolution. It shows the "Flat Rock" at the bend of the river and its richly wooded banks. The view is a happy one as it just shows enough of the river to make it appear as a little lake, situated in the most entrancing verdure, and forming a cool secluded spot on a warm summer day. The landscape and perspective are perfect, and along the banks of the stream is shown a carriage with two horses and the occupants.

JOHN A. WOODSIDES

A noted local Philadelphia painter who flourished in the middle of the last century. He painted many portraits, historical and allegorical subjects, and was noted as the decorator of the hose carriages and engines of local fire companies, and the first locomotive.

6 AN INDIAN BUFFALO HUNT.

Canvas. Signed. Size, 18 x 24.

A vivid portrayal of two Indians on horseback attacking a buffalo bull. It is a very fine specimen of this artist's work, which has now become very rare.

JONATHAN TREGO

Early Pennsylvania Portrait Painter, contemporary with Sully and Naegle.

6a MRS. JANE ATKINSON SMITH, OF BUCKINGHAM, BUCKS COUNTY, PENNA. FULL BUST.

Canvas. Size, 22 x 27 inches.

This is a very interesting portrait of an old Quaker lady, with the conventional Quaker cap. It is artistically painted by an artist of whom very few examples are in existence.

PAINTING BY GEORGE MORLAND
No. 2

PIERRE LOUIS DELAVAL

Born in Paris, April 27, 1790. Portraits and historical painter. Pupil of Girodet.

- 40 7 PORTRAIT OF M. GOUGET, PRIME MINISTER OF FRANCE. FULL BUST.

Canvas. Signed and dated 1823. Size, 26 x 22 inches.
A very strong portrait.

- 40 8 PORTRAIT OF MADAM GOUGET, WIFE OF THE PRECEDING.
Canvas. Signed and dated 1822.

- 22 50 9 THE GOUGET FAMILY, CONSISTING OF THREE FINE PAINTED MINIATURES ON IVORY OF GOUGET, HIS WIFE AND TWO CHILDREN IN A COMBINATION FRAME.

JOHN NEAGLE

Born in Boston, Mass., Nov. 4, 1796. Died in Philadelphia, Sept. 17, 1865. Student under Bass Otis, married the step-daughter of Thos. Sully, with whom he divided the best patronage in Philadelphia. It has been said, "Sully painted the pretty women and Neagle the virile men." He was second only to Stuart as a portrait painter.

- 120 10 CAPTAIN JACOB BAUSH. FULL BUST.

Canvas. Size, 29 x 40 inches.

Jacob Baush was a captain of a sailing vessel and was well-known in the commercial world. With this portrait, which exhibits the artist in his best form (and which could almost be taken as a painting by Gilbert Stuart) will go the ship's papers, granted to Jacob Baush, commander of the "Ship Missouri." Signed by President James Monroe and John Quincy Adams, as Secretary of State. Dated Sept. 15, 1821.

The portrait is an unusually strong one, and a fine example of the artist.

THOMAS SULLY

Born in Horncastle, Lincolnshire, England, June 19, 1783. Died in Philadelphia Nov. 5, 1872. Instructed by Gilbert Stuart and studied under Benjamin West. He was a portrait painter of marked ability and most famous for his paintings of women.

- 110 11 A SPANISH LADY WITH A GUITAR. SIGNED AND DATED 1827.

Canvas. Signed and dated 1827. Size, 20 x 24.

Very beautiful specimen of the artist's work and probably the portrait of some noted Philadelphia lady in the costume of a Spanish beauty.

- 90 12 STUDY OF THE HEAD OF A YOUNG GIRL.

Canvas. Signed and dated 1867. Size, 14 x 17.

JAMES R. LAMBDIN

Born in Pittsburgh May 10, 1807. Student under Thos. Sully. Painted many portraits of Washington and other prominent men.

- 30 13 PORTRAIT OF A GENTLEMAN, UNKNOWN.

- 30 14 PORTRAIT OF A LADY, UNKNOWN.

Canvas. Size, 25 x 30 in.

ANNA CLAYPOOLE PEALE

Daughter of James Peale. Still life and miniature painter, for which she earned a great reputation.

- 15 STILL LIFE. (APPLE, ORANGE, GRAPES, RAISINS AND GLASS OF WINE.)

Panel. Signed and dated 1822. Size 11 x 16½ inches.

C. M. POWELL

A prominent English Marine Painter.

- 15a MEN OF WAR (Sailer Rigged) at Anchor in an English Harbor. Signed, on canvas.

This is a very beautifully painted picture portraying the Men-of-War Ships, before sails were dispensed with.

UNKNOWN

- 15b MRS. SIDDON'S AS THE TRAGIC MUSE. Canvas. Size, 46½ x 39.

This painting has been in the possession of an old family in Philadelphia for over one hundred years. It may be the painting from which the engraving was made.

PATIENCE WRIGHT

The mother of Joseph Wright, the portrait painter. She excelled in modelling miniature heads in wax.

- 16 HEAD OF GENERAL WASHINGTON, CROWNED WITH LAUREL WREATH, PROFILE IN WAX. HEAD TO RIGHT. OVAL. SIGNED AND DATED, "P. WRIGHT, 1792."

Size, 6½ x 5½. See plate.

Excessively rare. It is said that Washington gave a sitting to Patience Wright. Whether this is correct or not she has succeeded in giving us in this model a correct and truthful likeness of the great man. St. Memmin's physionotrace which was taken from the living features with the instrument used by him for that purpose, is almost identical with that which Miss Wright produced several years before. As usual with all Miss Wright's wax models, it is cracked, but fortunately, in this case, the features only have a slight crack across the forehead, almost imperceptible, but the wax background is cracked in several places. This can be easily repaired. This imperfection can be readily seen in the plate. It will be well to recollect that Patience Wright did not make many profiles of Washington; in fact, any of her productions in wax are of the greatest rarity, and from this fact it can be judged how very unlikely it is that another opportunity will be offered like the present.

- 17 THOMAS JEFFERSON. MINIATURE ON IVORY. ARTIST UNKNOWN.

- 18 MINIATURES ON PORCELAIN, OVAL, BEAUTIFULLY PAINTED, INCLUDING GENERAL LAFAYETTE, JOACHIM MURAT, GEN'L. DESAIX DE VEYCOUX AND MARSHAL LANNES. FOUR PIECES.

PAINTING BY W. SLOW HOMER
No 4

W. H. SUGDEN

Eminent English painter.

- 19 BOLTON ABBEY, WATER COLOR, BEAUTIFULLY PAINTED. SIGNED AND DATED, 1912.
- 20 COMPANION, FURNESS ABBEY. SIGNED AND DATED, 1912.

NOTE.—The following etchings are from a private source, and should attract the attention of connoisseurs, as they embrace many important subjects by Rembrandt, Whistler, Zorn, Bracquemond, McBey, Lepere, Buhot, Cameron, Hankey and Jos. Pennell.

JAMES ABBOTT McNEILL WHISTLER

An American artist who studied under Gleyre in Paris, and settled in London, and who rose to unprecedented eminence, both as a painter and etcher.

- 21 ORIGINAL PEN AND INK DRAWING OF A GATEWAY.

It is said that Whistler resided for a brief period when a young man in a mansion on the banks of the Hudson River near New York, and it is thought the drawing represents a view of the house and portions of the grounds and gateway. He has drawn three comic little gnome-like figures over the top of the whole scene. It is accompanied by a letter from the former owner, C. M. Thom, attesting to its genuineness, and with an affidavit of the present owner attesting that he purchased the same from Mr. Thom.
